6. (Confidential - LHM) Called Mr. Peter Gerardi, House Science and Astronautics Committee, in an effort to set up a meeting for him, [redacted] and myself concerning the foreign country space study being conducted by Mr. Gerardi. I indicated to Mr. Gerardi that this was a follow up to my earlier meeting with him [redacted]

[redacted] and felt that a brief meeting with a substantive man from the Agency would help clarify the type of material needed to satisfy Gerardi's requirements. Mr. Gerardi indicated that he would be free Monday afternoon. [redacted] will call Gerardi Monday to set a firm time.

7. (Confidential - LHM) Mr. Francis Kilroy, in the office of Representative Leo W. O'Brien, called concerning a former Agency employee, [redacted]. The inquiry closely followed one that we received from Senator Robert Kennedy's office and, after discussing the matter with him briefly, Mr. Kilroy indicated that he was fully satisfied and there would be no need to be in communication with their office on this matter.
